Situation

Stepping into the property, the hallway has doors to the dining room and living room as well as stairs to the first floor. The living room is a lovely room with a window that floods the room with natural light. The dining room is a generous size with plenty of space for furnishings and a wood burning stove as well as a door to the kitchen. Fitted with a selection of units and work surface space, the kitchen has space for appliances with a door to the rear hall. Completing the downstairs space, the rear hall has doors to the garden and the bathroom which has a bath with shower over, toilet and wash basin. Heading upstairs, the landing provides access to both bedrooms. Bedroom one is a lovely size with high ceilings and a door to the dressing room which provides a useful extension of the bedroom. Bedroom two is another double bedroom with built in wardrobe space. To the front of the property there is a front garden. The rear garden is an excellent size, split into multiple sections creating a keen gardeners dream. There is a patio area along with a selection of attractive plants and shrubs making it a haven for wildlife. Trowbridge is the county town of Wiltshire found close to the western border with Somerset. On the fringe of the town centre, you find Trowbridge Town Park, a large open space with a host of activities, tree lined paths and a riverside walk to Biss Meadows Country Park. St Stephens Place provides several dining options along with a multi-screen cinema complex. There are a wide variety of historic buildings around the town along with a selection of beautiful walks nearby, including the Kennet and Avon Canal and Southwick Country Park.
